Subject: Verigy v. Mayder

Kevin:

This responds to your letter to me of October 31. We again decline your request to dismiss Wesley Mayder from this suit. I am not responding to your letter's mischaracterization of Wesley Mayder's roles except to say I disagree and that his involvement in his brother's activities including falsification of documents was more than enough to subject him to personal liability.

Discovery against Wesley Mayder, including taking his deposition, was specifically authorized by Judge Whyte. It's time to pick a date for that deposition. I propose December 3, 4, 5 or 6. Please choose one of those dates.
